Our tale takes place after Adol and his friend, Dogi, have completed a harrowing adventure in which they conquered an evil force and saved the land of Ys from doom.

As the pair continues to journey about the land of Ys, they come upon a town being visited by a gypsy caravan. While talking to the townspeople, the two friends hear about Felgana. Evidently, mysterious weather, bad crops, and rising prices have made it a bad place for merchants to do business.
Dogi was worried. His hometown, Redmont, was in the heart of Felgana. His uneasiness is heightened when he has his fortune told by a beautiful fortune-teller. The fortune-teller gazes into her crystal ball, but as Dogi's future is being revealed, the crystal ball explodes!! The explosion leaves the fortune-teller unconscious. Something mysterious was happening!

Adol had a nagging premonition, "Let's go to Redmont, Dogi.", he said. Thus, Adol begins a new adventure in the land of Ys...
CHARACTERS

HOW TO MOVE ON THE MAP
After you leave the town of Redmont, a map appears on the screen with various destinations. As the story progresses, you will be able to visit more places.
PLAYER

The length of this bar is Adol's maximum number of hit points. The yellow area indicates the remaining amount of hit points available. The red area indicates damage.

ENEMY

The hit points of the monster being attacked. Again, yellow indicates remaining hit points, and red indicates damage.

HIT POINT

These numbers are equal to the Player's hit point bar. The first number indicates remaining hit points, while the second number is the total hit points. If the remaining hit points reach 0, the game is over.
